Dear IA members,

When there are anytimers on the line, there is no room for doubt or uncertainty. Which means that all terms of a wager need to be crystal clear. However, lately there has been some discussion about some very important Dutch terms. Namely the terms "fixen" and "regelen". Therefore I have been asked to educate you all.

In this piece I will give you some definitions for different terms and since sex is different for everyone the terms can differ per person. Which brings me to my first piece of advice, if you want to make a bet just say whether it's about "kaken" or "bammen". This will get rid of the confusion all together.

That being said, what is fixen/regelen? A poll in the IA room showed that the majority of IA members thought fixen meant kaken. This might be due to the fact that the average IA member does not fix very often and they need to set the bar a bit low. For everyone who went to a Dutch Carnival, or has been in Brabant for that matter, knows that kaken is not much more than shaking hands. Just proper getting to know each other.

The question of fixen then remains. The most broad definition of fixen is spending the night together, this can mean vies muilen for the entire night. Or perhaps you just lost your keys, better known as sleutels zoeken. Or even just simply having sex.

Which brings us to the next question, what constitutes having sex? This answer is quite simple, everything from oral sex on, counts as sex! Why, do you ask? Well if sex only counts with peneration, lesbian women can't have sex and that's a bit sad.

So for the next time that you are busy dooryoggeren, aftopen, dichtkitten, volblaffen, raggen met of zonder beleid, onbaatzuchtig beffen, koning Arthuren, de kelder witten, ro-deorijden, punaiseren, naakt puzzelen, de puddingbuks doorladen, koolmijnen, alfabetiseren, kierklappen or windtunnelen. Just be happy and glad that you are not spending your time arguing about whether you are aan het fixen or not.

With a kiss and a lebber,

For I have sinned.

Now that we know what the definition is of "fixen" we would like to remind you all about the purity of the situation.

"Marriage should be honored by everyone, and husband and wife should keep their marriage pure. God will judge as guilty those who take part in sexual sins." Hebrews 13:4

"But because of the temptation to sexual immorality, each man should have his own wife and each woman her own husband." 1 Corinthians 7:2.

This verses from the bible states that sex before marriage is a sin and should not happen. Don't get us wrong, He is not against it, He invented it. But just as it is unwise to ice skate on a lake in the summer it is also unwise to not wait for marriage. He made it so intense and exciting that He wants us to share it with just one person: our future wife.

If you have already sinned do not worry for He wants to forgive you. Just start waiting, you will be glad you did.

Luckily there is a loophole for all of you who do not want to wait. If God cannot see it, it does not count. So as Garfunkel & Oates say: "Fuck me in the ass 'cause I love Jesus". We do what the bible tells us, expect the parts we choose to ignore.
